

Privacy Policy

Direct Impact Golf, LLC is committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring that your personal information is handled in a safe and responsible manner. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, and share your information.

Data Collection and Use

We collect personal information such as your name, email address, and mobile number to provide you with our services, including updates on events, promotions, and tips related to our business offerings.

Data Sharing Practices

1. Consent-Based Sharing: We do not share your mobile information with third parties for marketing purposes without your explicit consent. Any data sharing is strictly limited to fulfilling our business purposes.
2. Third-Party Partnerships: We may share your information with third-party partners for marketing purposes, but only with your consent. These partners are obligated to protect your information and use it solely for the purposes we specify.
3. Non-Transfer Commitment: We do not transfer consumer data to external organizations without explicit consent. This ensures your data remains within our trusted network.

Data Protection Measures

We have implemented strict policies to prevent unauthorized sharing of user data. These measures include, but are not limited to, encryption, access controls, and regular audits of our data handling practices.

Consumer Rights

1. Opt-Out of SMS Communications: You have the right to opt out of receiving SMS messages from us at any time. To do so, simply reply STOP to any message you receive from us.
2. Access and Update Information: You can access and update your personal information by contacting us at info@dig.golf or calling (214) 239-3097.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on our website, and where appropriate, notified to you via email or SMS.
